The Party Quiz Game™

INVITE YOUR COMPUTER TO THE NEXT PARTY

PQ makes your computer more sociable. Together they can spice up your next party by challenging guests to competitive, high energy question and answer rounds for game play at its best.

Quick cycling of questions eliminates the boredom experienced with board games. From one to four people or teams† can play at once while PQ's "Report Card" feature updates rankings with humorous grading comments. Questions are randomly generated so no one has an advantage.

Get thirsty during the middle of the game? PQ's "Pause" option lets you stop game in progress. Take all the time necessary to serve refreshments.

PQ IS FUN AND EDUCATIONAL AT THE SAME TIME

Intellects are challenged by questions covering every conceivable category of facts from Entertainment to History to Politics, Science, Sports and more.

Search your memory for the work of famous entertainers. Match authors and playwrights with their best known and little known efforts. Refresh your recall of historic dates and places while polishing your vocabulary and improving your reading skills, as "Lightning Rounds" challenge your response skills.

CREATE YOUR OWN PERSONALIZED GAME

Play solo or with as many as four total friends or teams. Feeling competitive? Or are you feeling sociable and relaxed? PQ gives you the freedom to choose between different kinds of play to suit the mood.

In "Social" mode, expiration of pre-set response time terminates the question. Everyone who responds correctly scores proportionally. In "Competition" mode, first correct answer scores and ends the question.

Feel like you're pretty skilled? Adjust response time anywhere between 3 and 10 seconds. Ten questions per round. Adjust game length from 5 to 20 rounds.

FAST-PACED FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY-TOGETHER!

Finally, your computer and PQ bring the whole family, everyone from eight to eighty, together. Optional individual player "handicapping" can equalize player skills.

PQ's Quick Response™ controllers let everyone remain away from the computer. Answers are never typed in through the keyboard. Sit down and relax...PQ lets your computer entertain you.
